

I am in full support of resisting any action to weaken Indiana's Telephone Privacy law which would permit banks to increase in any way their phone contacts with Indiana citizens. The FCC should not allow any such changes. The current law has made our lives much more free of unwanted and unneeded telephone contacts. Keep it in full force.